PRESERVING YOUR LOCAL CHURCH RECORDS

Your local congregation has records on membership, financial, program, and organization which provide an invaluable account of the history of your church. These records are important enough to preserve for future generations.

We would be glad to include originals or copies of your church records in our conference archival collection. You may deliver them to the United Methodist Archives Center at Drew University any business day between nine a.m. and four p.m. Please label them clearly "Northern New Jersey Conference Collection."

The Archives Collection of the Northern N. J. Conference contains material from nearly everyone of our current conference churches and most of our merged or disbanded congregations. These records are stored in the modern facilities of the United Methodist Archives Center at Drew University, the world's largest collection of Methodist materials. State of the art fireproofing, storage, and computer cataloguing insure that all material will be preserved and accessible for years to come. Microfilming is also available. We are fortunate to have this facility available to our N.N.J. Conference.

For further information on preserving local church records, contact Conference Archivist Robert Blackwell at 482-9842 or Historical Society President William Noll at 239-5762.

HISTORICAL DISPLAYS

When visiting in the Madison area, be sure to stop by the United Methodist Archives Center to see the latest displays in the museum area. Upcoming exhibits in our Northern New Jersey Conference display cabinet include Baptism (through February), Sunday School (March through May), and the 250th anniversary of Aldersgate (May through August).

For future displays, we are looking to add to our collection of post cards, note cards, Christmas cards, stationery, church plates and other items with photographs or sketches of church buildings.

CELEBRATING "HERITAGE SUNDAY" and JOHN WESLEY'S ALDERSGATE EXPERIENCE

250 years ago, on May 24th, 1938, John Wesley visited a Moravian prayer meeting on Aldersgate Street in London. Wesley had been struggling within himself as to the certainty of his own faith in Jesus Christ, and was profoundly unsatisfied with his efforts to lead a sinless, "Christian" life. That night, he reports in his diary, "I felt my heart strangely warmed. I felt I did trust in Christ, Christ alone, for salvation; and an assurance was given me, that he had taken away my sins, even mine, and saved me from the law of sin and death."

Because of the profound effect this experience had on John Wesley's life, May 24th is commonly celebrated as the birthday of the worldwide Methodist movement.

Several resources are available for your congregation's celebration of this anniversary, either on "Heritage Sunday" (April 24th) or some other suitable Sunday. These resources are available through the offices of the Commission on Archives and History, Post Office Box 127, Madison, N.J. 07940. You may also visit the Commission at the Archives Center on the Campus of Drew University, or call 201 822-2787.

"VISITING THE PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE"

This year's historical society publication is a guided tour of historic United Methodist congregations in the Northern New Jersey Conference.

Three tours follow three of Bishop Francis Asbury's many visits to this area between 1798 and 1813. Additional stops are suggested at other communities visited by Asbury, at historic ethnic congregations, and at other important United Methodist colleges, camp-grounds and centers.

This book, written by Historical Society President William Noll, also includes maps and photographs and is given free to every 1988 dues-paying member of the Historical and Archival Society of the Northern New Jersey Conference.

Anticipated publication date is May 1988.

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

CHARTER MEMBERSHIP YEAR - 1988

The General Commission on Archives and History is pleased to announce the establishment of The Historical Society of The United Methodist Church. The plan for the Society was adopted at the Commission Annual Meeting September 20, 1987. Charter membership is now open through December 31, 1988.

The charter membership drive for the Society is geared to build upon the celebration of Heritage Sunday and the observance of the 250th Anniversary of John Wesley's experience at Aldersgate. We see the event of General Conference and the beginning of the new quadrennium as a good time to remember the past and learn from it as a charter member of the new Historical Society.

Charter membership is $16.00 (outside the USA - $18.00 because of postage rates). The first year fee will cover the balance of 1988 and all of 1989!

Charter members will receive a certificate of membership as well as a wallet-size membership card. After January 1, 1989, there will be the small card only.

Members of the Historical Society will receive these benefits:

- a. Linkage with others who care about our history and heritage, and an opportunity to be informed and involved in preserving and telling our story as United Methodist Christians.
- b. Subscription to METHODIST HISTORY (Quarterly Journal).
- c. Subscription to THE HISTORIAN'S DIGEST (Society Newsletter).
- d. 10% Discount on Commission and Society publications.
- e. Reduced registration fee for Historical Convocations and annual meeting programs.
- f. Adjustment in genealogical and research fees.
- g. Membership in one of the four sections of the Society: Local Church, Commissions and Historical Societies, Education and Research, or Genealogy

Until the organizational meeting of the Historical Society in July, 1989, the History Committee of the General Commission is the organizing committee to implement the plan and make such other decisions as necessary. The Committee will also serve as the first nominating committee and present a slate of officers.

The Society has a solid foundation in the earlier societies of its antecedent bodies. The first meeting of the Historical Society of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ was held May 4, 1885 in Dayton, Ohio. The first meeting of the Historical Society of the United Evangelical Church was held March 12, 1907 in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and became the parent Historical Society of The Evangelical Church in 1922. In 1946, the Historical Society of the Evangelical United Brethren Church succeeded the societies of the two former denominations. The Association of Methodist Historical Societies was organized in May, 1923 in Baltimore, with its first annual meeting December 10, 1925 in Philadelphia.
